

REFLECTIONS

Guidelines for Parish Life

As stewards called to action by virtue of our membership in the family and household of God, we understand our action to be service to God, to each other and to those in need of God's saving help and mercy. We also understand that our service is a humble offering of ourselves, our time, abilities and expertise, when and where they may be needed.

As stewards and families of God's household we are called to obey Him, to submit each other and ourselves to Him, and to offer Him worship.

An Archbishop of the OCA

REFLECTIONS

Guidelines for Parish Life

As stewards called to action by virtue of our membership in the family and household of God, we understand our action to be service to God, to each other and to those in need of God's saving help and mercy. We also understand that our service is a humble offering of ourselves, our time, abilities and expertise, when and where they may be needed.

As stewards and families of God's household we are called to obey Him, to submit each other and ourselves to Him, and to offer Him worship.

An Archbishop of the OCA

PARISH ETIQUETTE

Please refrain from socializing during the Liturgy. Save your greetings and conversations for the fellowship hall. We are in the Liturgy to greet God with our prayers and worship, not to distract others.

Cell phones and texting are never allowed in Church. If you have a professional reason to carry a phone for emergencies, keep it on mute and sit near the exit so that leaving for an emergency will not be a distraction to others.

Taken from an Orthodox Church booklet.

PARISH ETIQUETTE

Please refrain from socializing during the Liturgy. Save your greetings and conversations for the fellowship hall. We are in the Liturgy to greet God with our prayers and worship, not to distract others.

Cell phones and texting are never allowed in Church. If you have a professional reason to carry a phone for emergencies, keep it on mute and sit near the exit so that leaving for an emergency will not be a distraction to others.

Taken from an Orthodox Church booklet.