St. Silouan the Athonite on prayer–

Unceasing prayer is born of love, while fault-finding, idle talk and self-indulgence are the death of prayer. The man who loves God is able to keep his mind on Him day and night since no form of activity interferes with loving God. The Apostles loved the Lord, and the world did not hinder them – though they were not forgetful of the world and prayed for it, and preached.
 ... Everyone in this world has a task to perform, be he a king or patriarch, cook, blacksmith or teacher, but the Lord Whose love extends to everyone of us will give greater reward to the man whose love for God is greater. The Lord gave us the commandment to love God with all our hearts, with all our minds, with all our souls. But without prayer how can one love? The mind and the heart of man, therefore, must always be free to pray.

-Epistle for this Sunday, Colossians 1:12-18

12giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light.<sup>13</sup> He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love,<sup>14</sup> in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.<sup>15</sup> He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.<sup>16</sup> For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him.<sup>17</sup> And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist.<sup>18</sup> And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

-Gospel for this Sunday, Luke 18:35-43

<sup>35</sup>Then it happened, as He was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the road begging.
<sup>36</sup>And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant.<sup>37</sup>
 So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.<sup>38</sup>
 And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"<sup>39</sup>
 Then those who went before warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"<sup>40</sup> So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him,<sup>41</sup> saying, "What do you want Me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight."<sup>42</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has made you well."<sup>43</sup> And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God
