Beloved in Christ,

June is shaping up to be a very full month of commemorations! Next Sunday, June 11th, we will celebrate our patronal feast of All Saints, which I hope will be a truly joyous event!

And on the following Sunday, June 18th, we will be joined for Liturgy by our beloved Father in God, His Eminence, Archbishop Mark.

Please make sure to be here to celebrate the Liturgy with our diocesan Archpastor.

In Christ,

Holy Pentecost

Sunday, May 28th, 2017
Holy Pentecost

Welcome to All Saints Orthodox Church!

A very warm welcome to our visitors who are worshipping with us this morning! Your presence is a blessing to us, and we pray that you also are blessed by God, and will visit us again! Feel free to join us for coffee hour after Liturgy!

Thought for the Day:

“In the Church's annual liturgical cycle, Pentecost is "the last and great day." It is the celebration by the Church of the coming of the Holy Spirit as the end - the achievement and fulfillment - of the entire history of salvation. For the same reason, however, it is also the celebration of the beginning: it is the "birthday" of the Church as the presence among us of the Holy Spirit, of the new life in Christ, of grace, knowledge, adoption to God and holiness.”

-Fr. Alexander Schmemmann

Today's Hymns:

Troparion – Tone 8

Blessed art You O Christ Our God / You have revealed the fishermen as most wise / By sending down upon them the Holy Spirit / Through them You drew the world into Your net / O Lover of Man, Glory to You!

Kontakion – Tone 8

When the most High came down and confused the tongues, / He divided the nations; / But when he distributed the tongues of fire / He called all to unity. / Therefore, with one voice, we glorify the All-holy Spirit!
