

Some Words of St. John Climacus

“Humility is the only virtue that no devil can imitate. If pride made demons out of angels, there is no doubt that humility could make angels out of demons..”

“Do not be surprised that you fall every day; do not give up, but stand your ground courageously. And assuredly, the angel who guards you will honour your patience...”

“The lover of silence draws close to God. He talks to Him in secret and God enlightens him.”

“In all your undertakings and in every way of life, whether you are living in obedience or in the world, whether in outward or in spiritual matters, let it be your rule and practice to ask yourself: Am I really doing this in accordance with God’s will?”

~ Excerpts from The Ladder of Divine Ascent

“Let us Attend!”

“Ascend, my brothers and sisters, ascend eagerly. Let your hearts' resolve be to climb...”

From a Prayer at the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts

Deliver Thou all our senses from death–dealing, carnal desires, setting over them as a good ruler the understanding that is in us. Let our eye have no part in any evil sight. Let our hearing be in accessible to all idle words; and let our tongue be purged from unseemly speech. Purify our lips which praise Thee, O Lord. Make our hands to abstain from evil deeds and to work only such things as are acceptable into Thee, establishing all our members and our minds by Thy Grace.
